5-Week course includes a uniform and costs only $69

Since 1976, Maloney's Martial Arts, a.k.a. Lee's Martial Arts, has been in this community teaching physical, mental, and emotional self defense for health and confidence building. This five-week course focuses on character development and basic self defense.

Sessions are held at Maloney's Martial Arts.

Twice a week students will learn a variety of skills including self-awareness and self-control that will develop their confidence and help bring out their very best at home, at school, and in all areas of their lives.

TEACHING DISCIPLINE, FOCUS & FITNESS.

Empowering life skills learned through the martial arts.

"...Master Jerry Maloney makes this the dojo it is. And it is an engaging, safe environment where students feel they can make mistakes and learn from them. The focus is on growing as a person and getting stronger both physically and mentally. Master Jerry Maloney has all the attributes of an outstanding instructor: he is reflective, he is masterful in his differentiation, and he has a true passion for guiding youngsters to becoming confident and self-controlled individuals who take responsibility for their actions. He's also commendably patient and positive. I particularly admire how Master Jerry challenges his students to be mindful of their thoughts, comments, and actions. (In this day and age of social media, we could all do with a little more mindfulness.) My son has been a student at Maloney's Martial Arts for four years now and he always looks forward to class. He takes Master Jerry's teachings to heart and has used them to help navigate situations he has encountered. I couldn't ask for a better mentor and role model for my son or myself! Check it out! You won't be sorry you did!"
